The Heart of the Matter

How often do we hear solicitors wrangling over the law, looking for a loophole to suit their own agenda? Those seeking loopholes seem perfectly happy to ignore the spirit of the law in their quest to win. In today's gospel reading Jesus invites us to consider that it is not just laws in themselves that are important but our attitude towards those laws.

Perhaps we haven't committed murder, but have we harboured hatred? We might not have committed adultery, but have we failed to live up to the love we once promised our spouse? We might not have committed theft, but are our hearts set on the wealth our neighbours have earned? Laws might seem to fence our lives with rods of uncompromising iron, but most laws are simply expressions of how we should behave towards each other. The unwritten laws of love bind us in promises that we wouldn't dream of compromising let alone riddling with loopholes. When it comes to those we love, we don't need a statute book, our hearts tell us what to do. The written law should be no different. Laws are written down in books of statute and commandments are written in the Bible, but the spirit of the law must exist in our hearts.

What exists in our hearts is as important if not more important than our actions because it's what is written in our hearts that defines us.

Pope Leo's Prayer intention for February - For children with incurable diseases. Let us pray that children suffering from incurable diseases and their families receive the necessary medical care and support, never losing strength and hope.

Join us for refreshments in the hall after 9am Mass on Sundays.

Volunteers Please - If you have an hour to spare on Saturday morning at 11am, please would you consider coming along to help with Church cleaning. We have very few regular volunteers. The more who come, the quicker it gets done.

Re register - the diocese has appointed a new company to manage our parish databases from the end of January. Please use the QR code to re register as a parishioner and continue to receive the newsletter and other parish information. There is a separate QR code to register child parishioners. Both codes are available on the notice board. If you don't have a smart phone, please ask Sharon or another parishioner to help you access the online form.

Stop Assisted Suicide - further action needed!

Please take 30 seconds to stop assisted suicide from being forced into law. Right To Life UK has made an EasyAction tool to email your MP asking them to oppose attempts to force assisted suicide into law by bypassing the House of Lords.

Please visit www.righttolife.org.uk/ASCommons2026 to ask your MP to oppose forcing the assisted suicide Bill into law.
